

Never before such Beautiful Books
at only $1.50 each!

THOMAS BENTON, JOHN STEUART CURRY, BOARDMAN ROBINSON, GEORGE GROSZ and other famous American artists have illustrated these beautiful editions in color, at this amazingly low price!

THOMAS BENTON
Painter, muralist, lithographer — Benton has created murals for the Whitney Museum of American Art, New School for Social Research, Missouri State Capitol, and other public buildings.

JOHN S. CURRY
As rock-ribbed an American in his own way as was Emerson, whose Essays he has illustrated, John Steuart Curry is the independent man of vision the great essayist celebrated in his writings.

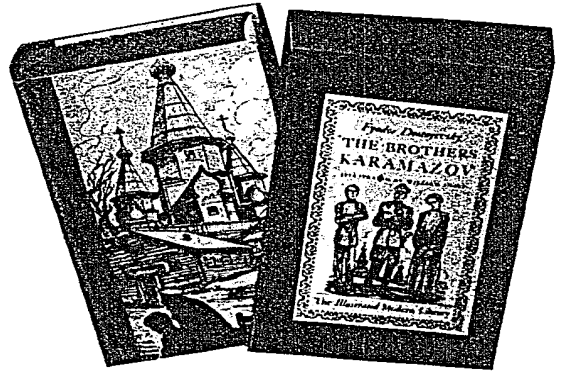

BOARDMAN ROBINSON

Perhaps the high point of Robinson's career is represented by the eighteen panels which he created for the Department of Justice in Washington. A superb draughtsman, he is at his best in Leaves of Grass.

GEORGE GROSZ

Twenty years ago, George Grosz's drawings, with their fierce indictment of war and their deep pity for mankind, attracted world-wide recognition. His exhibits never fail to make news in the art world.

NEVER BEFORE have you been able to own, at so little cost, such superbly illustrated editions of the books you have always wanted. They are beautifully illustrated with paintings, drawings, lithographs or woodcuts; handsomely boxed and stamped in 24 carat genuine gold. Each volume is a creation in itself, interpreting in its format and illustrations the spirit of the text.

Such collector's editions usually cost many times $1.50. So you can well understand why these Illustrated Modern Library books are selling so fast that only those who make their selections early will be certain of getting them.
