THE MODERN LIBRARY

The Moderns that have become Classics, and the Classics that have Stayed Modern

UNTIL you have actually browsed through the Modern Library's unique list of books which you must read and which you have always wanted to own—it is difficult to realize how important this list is! Only the Modern Library, with its sales of over a million books a year, could afford to produce such attractive, important books at so low a price.

Formerly Priced at From $2 to $10

Every one of the 109 titles in this list originally sold for from at least $2 to as high as $10. Many of them are the first and only reprints of expensive, original editions. Now they are offered to you in the smart, sturdy, balloon-cloth bindings of the Modern Library. Titles and designs are stamped in heavy gold. The printing is on excellent paper in large, clear type. Rockwell Kent and Elmer Adler designed the end-papers and title pages.

EVERY BOOK COMPLETE AND UNABRIDGED

Now you may have as many of these treasured books as you wish—to examine, to read, to enjoy, with our unqualified guarantee that unless you are delighted we will immediately return your money. Make your selection now.
