

OUR MODERN WORLD WAS BORN IN THE YEARS

1453 to 1527!

HERE IS THE GREATEST BOOK ABOUT THAT BLOODY ERA...

Formerly published in seven volumes at $26.25; now complete in two large volumes at $2.00

LIKE the sudden, clear light of a thousand candles in a murky cave, certain men and events in Italy illuminated a world that had been made a dungeon by centuries of mediaevalism. It is the moment the modern world was forged, by such giants as da Vinci, Ariosto, Machiavelli and Copernicus.

Energy and genius were the driving forces of this age—the Renaissance. Not only did men rediscover the priceless intellectual wealth of ancient Greece and Rome, but their rulers raised political corruption to the status of a fine art. Borgias, Medicis, Sforzas and a host of petty tyrants ruled by poison and the sword. Yet these scoundrels, too, are among the great men of history.

Because, like The Story of Philosophy and The Outline of History, it exhaustively describes a vital step in the development of our civilization, Renaissance in Italy is one of the most important and most fascinating books ever written. When you have read it you will have lived through the most chaotic decades in history, you will have rubbed elbows with the greatest men who ever lived, and you will better understand the world today.

Here are a few of the titans of literature, art, science and statesmanship you will meet in its pages:

- MICHELANGELO—He glorified God by surpassing the pagans in art.
- MACHIAVELLI—The world's greatest cynic, whose theories of statecraft horrified even the Italian tyrants.
- SAVONAROLA—The prophet of the Renaissance.
- THE MEDICIS—The greatest of the Italian despots.
- BENVENUTO CELLINI—His exciting life typifies the Renaissance.
- LEONARDO DA VINCI—History's beloved superman.
- COPERNICUS—An epoch began with his astronomical discoveries.
- GALILEO—The greatest physicist since Archimedes.

Some of the movements that characterized the Renaissance, and which are fully described in this book:

- THE INQUISITION—The unholy weapon of Holy Church.
- THE REVIVAL OF LEARNING—Man's rediscovery of Greek and Roman culture.
- THE JESUITS—The most powerful secret society in history.
- THE ITALIAN DESPOTS—History's most inhuman rulers.
- THE HUMANISTS—The greatest scholars of all time.
