NOTE: There is, obviously, room on this page for only a portion of the complete MODERN LIBRARY list. We shall be glad to send you a complete catalog, on request.

HERE are books on which our civilization rests. They are the basic works of all literatures (here presented, of course, in the English tongue) which intelligent people today as always turn to for inspiration, guidance, enrichment. And lest that sound too austere, let us remind you that here, too, are the most popular of all books: the great novels, the fascinating stories and plays and poems that have thrilled, literally, millions. They provide the best kind of relaxation.

Take your pick of them, in the handsome, well-printed, sturdily bound form that MODERN LIBRARY presents, at these remarkably low prices. (Please note that many of these books in their original editions cost $2, $3, $5 and even higher; some of them can be obtained—outside of the Modern Library edition—only in expensive, many-volume sets.)

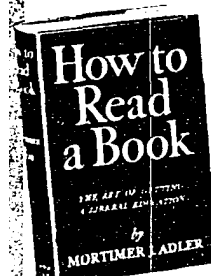

We GUARANTEE you will be pleased with them. If any of the books, on examination, fail to satisfy you in any way, your money will be refunded.

See the list of 51 Modern Library books recommended by Mortimer J. Adler, at the right. Below and to the left are listed some other representative, best-selling titles:

- 32—PERSONAL HISTORY by Vincent Sheean
One of the most exciting books of our time, with a new foreword by Mr. Sheean that brings his story up to the minute.
- 7—THE WISDOM OF CONFUCIUS
The great Chinese sage formulated rules for successful living that have stood the test of time. Translated and edited by LIN YUTANG.
- 195—CASUALS OF THE SEA by William McFee
One of the most famous of all sea stories, by the author of the current best-seller, "Watch Below."
- 61—SANCTUARY by William Faulkner
A breathtaking and dramatic novel by the author of "The Hamlet."
- 106—WUTHERING HEIGHTS by Emily Brontë
If you saw the movie starring Laurence Olivier, you will want to read this strange, haunting story of the English moors.
- 176—OF HUMAN BONDAGE by W. Somerset Maugham
A constant best-seller in the Modern Library, and one of the greatest novels ever written.
- 67—SIX PLAYS OF CLIFFORD ODETS
Includes: Waiting for Lefty; Awake and Sing; Till the Day I Die; Paradise Lost; Golden Boy; and Rocket to the Moon.
- 182—THE LATE GEORGE APLEY by John P. Marquand
A Pulitzer Prize Novel—the delectable, satirical story of a New England family, set against a background of Puritanism.
- 33—MAN'S FATE by André Malraux
The most profoundly stirring book about men in war ever written.
- 29—OF MICE AND MEN
- 216—TORTILLA FLAT
- 115—IN DUBIOUS BATTLE
Three stirring novels by JOHN STEINBECK, author of "The Grapes of Wrath."
- 16—THE WAR IN OUTLINE by Liddell Hart. The best single-volume history of the First World War.
